Decision Tonight On Dog Races Here This Year

Smart Replaces Waters As President Of Outing Club

Reg Smart of Goodfellows Coffee Shop was elected president of the Truckee Outing Club at the meeting held at Hill Top Lodge last Thursday evening. He replaced Roy F. Waters who held the position for the past year.

Other officers named by the club included Dave Rose of the Truckee Public Market, vice president; Earl Stice, Southern Pacific agent, secretary, and Miss Gertrude Smith, treasurer.

The meeting was held in conjunction with the chamber of commerce and was devoted principally to an open discussion on the proposed Dog Derby. Since an agreement on details could not be reached, it was voted to hold another meeting for everyone interested at Capitol Hall tonight at 7:30 o'clock.

The chamber of commerce, headed by Earl Stice, has agreed to sponsor the affair but not without the full support and cooperation of other local organizations and individuals. In other words, unless a willingness to cooperate is shown at tonight's meeting, the proposed annual winter highlight might well be passed up or handed to some nearby resort center.

The managers of the Squaw Valley project which will open for the season this month have indicated a desire to include the dog races in their winter schedule in event Truckee does not care to continue the program. Even though the Truckee interests decide to go ahead with the plan, the Squaw Valley representatives have agreed to lend all possible assistance.

The whole plan will be aired at tonight's meeting and everyone is urged to be present by Stice.

Three Killed On Way To Attend Local Meeting

Grass Valley Sojourners Thrown Down Bank In Collision

Three prominent Grass Valley residents, en route to Truckee to attend a Masonic Lodge gathering here Monday night, were killed at 7 o'clock when their car and a truck driven by George McKain, 37, sideswiped a mile east of Gold Run on Highway 40.

The dead were:

Frank W. Bennallack, 71, retired mining man and member of the Grass Valley school board.

John Thomas, 52, Masonic inspector, Grass Valley school district employee and president of the school employees association.

Clarence. G. Green, 64, Peardale rancher.

While on the spot details of the crash were lacking, it was reported by the truck driver that he felt his trailer swaying and felt a bump. He stopped to investigate and found the bumper of the Thomas car on his trailer. A search revealed the lighter vehicle had been hurled 25 feet down an embankment, instantly killing all the occupants.

Patrolmen Lynn Lardner and Earl Crane made the investigation.

All three of the victims were well known in Truckee.

Second Accident

Nellie D. Miller, 24, and Lawrence Walker, 20, both of Sacramento were killed the same night when the car driven by the former collided headon with a Lang truck near Colfax. Patrolmen were advised Mrs. Miller was attempting to pass another vehicle and met the truck on a curve headon.

DRIVERS CITED IN ACCIDENT SERIES THIS PAST WEEK

In three sensational automobile wrecks in this vicinity during the past week, five people were injured, one man arrested for drunk driving and another for reckless driving.

The most serious accident occurred Saturday night about 11 o'clock just west of Hirschdale when cars driven by Walter Deaton, 42, Reno, employed as tile man at the new Union service station here, and M. L. Aronhalt, Oakland, collided headon.

Both men were taken to a Reno hospital by the Truckee ambulance. State Patrolman William Gautsche charged Deaton with driving on the wrong side of the road. Reports from Reno said Deaton was killed in the mishap but he escaped with minor injuries as did Aronhalt.

A. E. Noah, 42, Reno dealer, and his wife, Edna, narrowly escaped death when their car skidded 350 feet along the right side of the highway near Floriston and then plunged 250 feet into a ravine. Noah was cited by Patrolman Gautsche for reckless driving. Both the injured were treated by Dr. L. D. Nelson. The accident occurred at 9 p.m. Friday.

Daniel Moffat, 39, San Francisco, received a citation for drunk driving after his car got out of control near Farad last Thursday afternoon and skidded 325 feet through the brush and rocks. The driver escaped with a cut hand. Patrolmen Gautsche and Roy Stallard made the investigation.

Cars driven by Floyd Carnell of Tahoe City and Donald Smith of Soda Springs collided without injury to the occupants near Tahoe City last Thursday morning.

Uniform Deer Season Studied by Supervisor

H. G. Loehr, fifth district Nevada County supervisor, this week was questioning local sportsmen regarding a resolution being considered by the board which would establish a uniform deer season in the state. The resolution calls attention to the fact that the deer population is diminishing as the hunter population is increasing and asks the fish and game commission to provide a single uniform season to correct the situation.

S. P. Installs New Club Car To Two Mountain Trains

Daylight Tourists' Treat Over Scenic Sierra Starts Friday

Oval-ended streamlined parlor observation cars will be added this week to the rear end of the "San Francisco Overland" trains between Oakland and Reno, affording reserved seats for daytime view of the Sierra Nevada mountains and canyons at lower cost than first class fares, according to Fred E. Watson, general passenger agent for Southern Pacific.

First service east out of Oakland will be Friday morning and first service west out of Reno on Saturday morning, Watson said. The trains serve the snow sports areas of the high Sierra, and traverse the Truckee River canyon, skirt Donner Lake, cross Donner Summit and overlook the canyon of the American River, all between midday and dark.

The parlor observation cars, similar to those on the "Morning Daylight" between San Francisco and Los Angeles, have large windows and will be served by a porter, Watson said.

Like the rest of the state, Truckee voters also favored the state school bond issue in proposition No. 1, voted to increase legislators' pay in proposition No. 3 and by a narrow vote of 114 to 111 favored summer daylight saving in proposition No. 12.

A notice of intention to transfer the liquor license at the Tourist Club this week reveals that Jack Rose is disposing of his interests in the establishment to his former partners, Nace Firpo and Johnnie Richards, who will continue to manage the popular place.

For the time being at least, Rose is employed at the Sierra Tavern. The family plans to move into the apartment over Cabona's Store and Mr. and Mrs. Firpo will occupy their home at Gateway Park.

State is Assured Right To Require Reforesting

The United States supreme court has upheld the power of a state to compel persons engaged in commercial logging operations to make provision for reforesting cut over areas.

The authority of the State of Washington to enforce such a requirement was challenged by Avery Dexter, owner of 320 acres of timberland in that state. He appealed from a decision by the state supreme court upholding the constitutionality of the requirement.

The high tribunal affirmed the state court's finding in a two-line order.

Sun Beams

by Walter M. Barrett

The dinner and program sponsored by the Truckee Parents and Teachers Association at Capitol Hall last Saturday evening offered conclusive evidence that enjoyment created by family gatherings is not a pleasure of the past. The many features blended to provide a wholesome good time for the large gathering. The PTA has well earned the thanks of the community for its effort. Now, following on the heels of the successful affair, will be the spaghetti dinner sponsored tomorrow evening at Veterans Memorial Building by the women of the local Community Church. This affair, too, should provide an evening of enjoyment. Some of the best cooks in the area have been contacted to supply the menu and it is anticipated that a large turn out will greet the efforts of the sponsors. The dinner starts at six o'clock and everyone is invited.

A weaving cattle truck trailer Monday night snuffed out the lives of three men on a stretch of highway where an accident would appear very unlikely. About the same time two others were killed in the same general location in a headon collision with a tank truck. We do not charge that in either event was the truck driver at fault, but we do contend that far too many accidents involving trucks are occuring on our highways and a thorough investigation as to the cause of this frequency should be undertaken by some sort of committee to bring an end to the slaughter. There must be a solution and truckers as well as the general public should welcome the answer.

Christmas Tree Supply Is Reported Dwindling

Guerdon Ellis, Tahoe National Forest supervisor, has announced that free cutting of Christmas trees for individual use will again be banned this year.

Ellis said that the supply of readily available trees on public land has been completely exhausted by individuals from nearby towns and bay area cities. He said that while many trees may be seen on established routes of travel, these are protected by law and that the commercial cutters are getting their supplies from almost inaccessible locations.

Bona fide settlers in isolated areas inside the forest will not be affected by the restriction, he added.

Phil Davis Faces Prison Term In Tahoe Tragedy

Judge Raps Defendant For 'Moral Weakness' At Sentencing

Phil Davis, prominent Oakland auto dealer, will start a six months prison term Sunday and will pay a $1500 fine unless Federal Judge Dal Lemmon grants him bail pending a higher court decision.

Davis was found guilty last week on a charge of operating a speedboat in such a manner that it caused an accident in which Miss Imogene Wittsche, 14 year old Roseville girl, lost both legs while swimming in Lake Tahoe.

Throughout the investigation and subsequent federal court trial, Davis denied he caused the accident.

In passing sentence this week, Judge Lemmon told Davis he must have known soon after the accident that it occurred. "And yet to this date you have done nothing to right the wrong," he added. "You have not visited the victim or her parents. You have shown a moral weakness and a materialist philosophy that does not commend you."

In the meantime, the girl's parents have filed a $321,000 damage action against Davis. This case is scheduled to be heard in Placerville during February.

While it has not been announced where Davis will serve the six months, court attaches believed it would be McNeil Island near Tacoma, Washington.

CROWD ATTENDS P.T.A. PARTY ON LAST SATURDAY

Close to 300 attended the supper and program at Capitol Hall Saturday night, sponsored by the Truckee Parents and Teachers Association. A diversified program was arranged and earned the approval of the large crowd.

Mrs. M. E. Brown, association president, said the group cleared approximately $150 from the benefit.

The program featured a number of entertaining events, including numbers by the pre-school children under the capable direction of Mrs. J. R. Wolert, elementary school numbers directed by Mrs. Eulah Brown and a high school glee club arrangement by Ernest Douglas, school music instructor.

Following the dinner, games were played and booths were widely patronized. Mrs. Muriel Frey was chairman of the committee in charge.

Heavy Snow In Sierra Causes Service Delays

Schools In Tahoe-Truckee Closed 'Til Monday; Traffic Snarls

The beautiful Indian Summer in the high Sierra ended abruptly Tuesday night when a major snow storm swept down over Donner Summit and left in its wake more than a foot of wet snow. About three feet were reported on the summit while Tahoe recorded 14 inches.

For brief periods the storm snarled highway traffic when cars and trucks skidded or stalled in the slushy snow. There was no time, however, when the main highway was closed as state crews battled to keep the pavement clear.

The weight of the snow caused a few power and telephone lines to snap but for the most part, utilities were affected only slightly. Emergency crews were called and worked night and day to keep service near normal.

All schools in the Tahoe-Truckee Unified School District were closed this morning and will not resume until Monday, according to an announcement heard over a Reno radio station. It was presumed that this action was taken due to Friday being a holiday when schools would ordinarily be closed anyway.

Although skies were clearing this morning, a new storm is reported building up off the California coast and was expected to reach California tonight, with some forecasters predicting the general course of the storm as still unknown. The storm during the past few days did considerable damage in the coastal and valley areas where high winds and torrentail rains were reported.

The Southern Pacific schedule was not affected by the storm.

One of the many nice things about Christmas—at least to some people—is that it brings with it some very welcome checks. Some $21 million, for instance, is soon to be mailed out by Bank of America to 200,000 Californians who had Christmas Club accounts during the year. The $21 million is the largest amount ever distributed by this one institution in Christmas funds, indicating that this type of savings has lost none of its popularity. How much of this money actually goes into the purchase of gifts and goods can only be estimated but it is well known that a substantial part of it is used to pay taxes and insurance premiums, buy government savings bonds and to start regular bank savings accounts. The Christmas Club habit is not a bad one to have and its "dividends" come in handy at the end of the year.

Public Health Nurse Duties Are Varied, Reports Placer Officer

TAHOE CITY— Many times during the past year the question has been asked, "Just what does a Public Health Nurse do?"

According to Mrs. Dorothy J. Burkhart, Public Health Nurse in the Placer County Health Department, a Public Health Nurse is a registered nurse, which implies she has taken three years of nurses training in a accredited school of nursing and has passed the state board. She attends a university where she majors in Public Health, obtaining her PHN.

"Our efforts are expended on conservation of health," she says. "We work to prevent illness, to establish and maintain good health, to prevent the spread of contagion of all sorts and to establish good personal and home hygiene.

"We organize Child Health Conferences wherever we find that they are needed. In these infants and pre-school children are examined by a doctor for defects, diet instruction is given to mother and the child is immunized against diphtheria, whooping cough and tetanus and is vaccinated for small-pox. These conferences try to maintain the good health of the child and to promote adequate growth."

If a member of the community contracts a contagious disease it is the Public Health Nurse who goes into the home to teach the family the care of cantagion and how to prevent its spread. The Public Health Nurse goes into all kinds of contagion in order to prevent its spread by means of teaching the patient and family its care. She explains the regulations of quarantine to the family and helps them maintain such isolation.

Tuberculosis is one of their major problems. Not only do they go into the home and teach the patient how to care for himself in order not to spread the disease but they keep a constant vigil on those persons known to have come into contact with an open case, see that they are x-rayed at intervals and take every opportunity to teach them how to prevent contracting tuberculosis if it is impossible to remove the source of infection from the home.

Many Public Health Nurses do school work exclusively. These nurses render the same services to the school children that the city and county Public Health Nurses do to infants and pre-schools.

It is the duty of the Public Health Nurse to observe sanitary conditions wherever she goes and to advise to the best of her ability as to their improvement.

There have been no changes in California county boundaries since 1907.

Your voice can reach some 85 countries as easily as a nearby town. The low rates may surprise you.

"Calling Tokyo...4250"

How overseas service puts the world by your telephone

1. For doing business and keeping in touch with friends, overseas telephone service has become an everyday tool. In its twenty-two years, the calling rate has jumped from about 2,300 calls a year to 600,000. Today, your voice can be sent over short-wave radio to ninety-four per cent of the world's telephones ...over circuits as long as 8,000 miles.

2. Skilled technicians in the circuit control room keep constant watch on their equipment to make sure your voice can hurdle the earth and still sound about as clear as a cross-town call. And overseas service is easy to use. Your Long Distance operator will give you the rates, the best time to call... and set up an appointment call for you if you wish.

3. In 1927, the lowest overseas rate from the West was $84.00. Now the maximum to most countries is $12.00 (plus tax) for three minutes. Many calls cost less. Making it possible to call almost anyone, at low cost, is another way we've made your telephone more valuable.

Now that the train schedule for mail has changed and our mail is taken to Sacramentot on No. 25 Westbound where it is sorted and redistributed for all points east of Sacramento, the mail car on No. 28 having been abolished, we must get in our news a day ahead of time or else miss the deadline. However, as bad as the above sounds it has its silvery ray because for the first time in many a year the skiing area has an east and west bound stop for those snow sports lovers who like to travel by train, who can't afford the time or the money to stay more than one day and for those who would not wrestle with the chain problems which are necessary for snow packed and icy roads.

Forgetting the above necessity of pounding out our chatter a day ahead of time last week, we rport on parties a week old but nevertheless still being talked about.

DONNER SUMMIT LODGE:

The 8th annual Hallowe'en Party of the Donner Summit Lodge personnel was given on October 30 with most of the participants wearing jeans—and we do mean participants. All of the long legged, flat stomached, thin participants looked forward to the Hi-Lo game. In fact the winners, Mr. and Mrs. Max Williamson confessed that they had practiced at home for the event. Long legs are necessary for the "Hi" part of the game for one must step over a precariously balanced stick that is raised from time to time without touching said stick. Red Alexander and Fran Kamp have nice long legs and between giggles and laughter they stepped high. In the "Lo" deal flat stomachs are necessary for the stick is lowered on its hurdled form and the flatter one can get to the floor the better is the chance of winning. Jack Wolert carried off the honors last year but the honor was taken from him this time, as mentioned, by the Williamsons. Betty Horak, the hostess for this shindig, plants balloons in a sheet suspended from the ceiling. In each balloon is your trick for the evening. So the first event is the releasing of the sheet and those who wish to participate needs must grab a balloon to enter the fun. A marvelous repast consisting of turkey and baked ham sandwiches, chili beans and pumpkin pie were served at the witching hour and the couple of hundred guests with their kids cleaned off the table without much ado. Rooms in the lodge were converted into a nursery so that the mamas and papas who couldn't obtain a baby sitter were relieved of their offspring for the evening's fun!

Speaking of the above Hallowe'en party was our last night as an employee of Donner Summit Lodge for the Couillards are now the proud operators of the Soda Springs Grocery Store and Gas Station, having acquired same from George Fraley. George, well known in this area as "The Mayor", isn't planning on changing his residence so we'll still be together.

SODA SPRINGS HOTEL:

We walk into this freshly painted establishment to find Bill and Rita Vail lugging around furniture and busy as bees. We find that these two are leaving the hotel. However, the aren't going far for Bill and Rita are moving into the Rainbow Tavern area where they will take over the management of that place on November 15th for their good friends Brant and Doris Chaplin. They will reside in the Chaplin home where little Pat Vail will have a companion in the person of Robyn Dunk. So we look for another party when Bill and Rita take over. And another Welcoming Party is in the offing for Paul Norboe will take over the management of the Soda Springs Hotel. Paul, popular, well known and affable, is now busy with his Christmas tree cutting and when the snows put an end to that business, he will clean his hands of pitch, close up his cook shack and don a business suit to greet the snow sport lovers and his many friends from behind the desk. Dennis and Muriel Jones will winter on their Mother Lode Ranch near Auburn.

SNOWTEL:

We took a quick run down to Kingvale to go thu this establishment built and owned by Harold and Gloria Steen. In its embryonic form it is pretty hard to tell what its capacity will be but we don't think we're stretching it much when we say they should be able to house 75. Two stories high, each room and the dorm open off a balcony which faces east. A fire place in the rumpus room downstairs and one in the lobby upstairs gives evidence of coziness and a homelike atmosphere. The coffee shop which opens off the lobby is light and spacious. The beautiful inlaid design on the outside of the building with steel windows bright with their chartreuse framing is as effective as the unique name of the establishment —"The Snotel". These energetic youngsters with their baby give evidence of a civic spirit and we welcome the Steens into the land of Winter Sports.

ICE LAKES:

Bill Rutherford has just shoved into the mail box 150 invitations to the Thanksgiving dinner he is putting on at Ice Lakes. If it snows, sled transportation will be used for the hauling of guests which ought to add a great deal to the first of holiday activities. Bill has turned the kitchen end of the business over to Floyd Lee, one-time chef at the Soda Springs Hotel for several years. The large veranda of the Ice Lakes Chalet has been glassed in with double glass. The partition between the large lobby and dining room and the kitchen has been removed so that the inside of this beautiful chateau is remindful of an old fashioned farm house kitchen. Bill tells us that he intends to show moving pictures for the pleasure of his guests this winter and already a wire recording machine has been set up to record the mass singing that is always a feature of Ice Lakes.

BEACON HILL:

We dropped into Elmo Moriano's for a cup of coffee in the coffee shop a few days ago and were amazed at the fact that the windows overlooking the ski hill fall directly in line with the new double chair lift which is emerging from its skeleton and taking shape. With the large balconies that one steps out on from the Beacon Hill Lodge rooms we see huge crowds this coming winter lining the balconies to watch the skiers come down the hill. On the Beacon Hill property we see a new billboard attractively painted that points towards the area's newest ski development. From the Ice Lakes porch one can see the high towers atop Beacon Hill. We still look with longing at the swimming pool—still empty of water—that lies in back of Beacon Hill Lodge. The smooth expanse surrounding the pool is planted into law and we already await spring and green sward.

SKI RANCH:

We haven't been in this new building as yet but we're going to give you the set up as Madylon Walton reports it. Two and a half stories high, the basement with its huge fireplace will be the "Brown Bag Room". This is named for the kids who bring their lunch and the cognomen a brain child of Madylon's. Second story, as we remember it, is to house a cocktail lounge and a cafeteria. The half story will house the Waltons in a brand new apartment. The old Chuck Wagon building becomes dorms for about forty kids.

THIS & THAT:

Our new "behind the counter" incarceration prevented us from visiting Kiski, Ski Hi, Ski Inn, Rainbow Tavern, Big Bend, Trailsyde and our other friends down the street but we know Kiski, as usual, is practically booked for the winter months. At Ski Inn we hear that Irene Goicoechea is recovering from her recent major operation and her many, many friends wish her good speed in her convalescence. The Nordstroms take a few months of rest from their little Ski Hi as they close for the fall months. Doris and Brant Chaplin at Rainbow announce prospects of a good winter's booking. We haven't seen the Buttlars from Big Bend Inn for some time and understand that they are in Oakland at the present. With Glen and Velda Parsons working like mad to get their place in order for the winter we haven't had much chance to check Trailsyde. Glen at the moment is cutting Christmas trees with Doolittle from Cisco while Velda drives the school bus and scrubs the establishment which is beautiful Trailsyde. Lest we forget, the Donner Summit American Legion Post holds its annual Armistice Day Breakfast at Ice Lakes on November 11th with Bill Rutherford host.

Now we come to Smiley Tschopp's birthday party—a most unique party this. Smiley (Madylon), who is a Hallowe'en baby, gave her party in the form of a Hallowe'en party at the Donner Trail Elementary School where every child was invited and the school afternoon turned into a wonderful Hallowe'en party for the children. Day Tschoop, her mother, was the instigator of this fine idea with teachers Mrs. Tiffee and Pat Bowman helping with the hostessing work.

At Barbara Zorich's attractive home back in the trees a group of mountain women gathered to mend socks, knit, gossip and eat a marvelous concoction on last Thursday evening. Hear this Summit Sit will be a regular thing with Nadine Neugebarger holding the next sitting bee. Frank Martinez of Norden tells us that his many sons have gone back to El Paso to be with their grandmother and run a small farm in that area. See Frank digging down into his jeans to buy them a truck for their project. The Marin Skate and Ski Club take over Bill Rutherford's Annex for the winter months while the San Francisco Rams Club take over the Hack Shack at Kingvale Park. Paul Norboe scratches his head and contemplates buiding a dorm which will accomodate his Christmas tree cutters and house his equipment for the coming year. Virgil Jones already builds a huge garage in front of his attractive stone cottage to house his many pieces of equipment.

And whilst we write we see a few flakes falling from heavenward. Could be winter is upon us.

Famed Skiing Expert Arrives This Week At Squaw Valley Resort

SQUAW VALLEY— Emile Allais, international ski champion and the man who taught the French army how to fight on skis, will be in San Francisco this week. He was scheduled to reach there aboard the Grace Liner Santa Leonor, which was to dock Wednesday, November 9. He is coming here to be instructor at the new ski resort to be officially opened in Squaw Valley, between Truckee and Lake Tahoe, on Wednesday, November 23.

Allais, who was among those winning top honors in the last Olympics winter meet and who won the world's skiing championship in the 1937 and 1938 Federale Internationale contests, is coming from Chile. There he was instructor at Portillo, reputed to be the world's largest ski resort. He is, however, no stranger to Americans, for he was instructor at Sun Valley, Idaho, where such movie luminaries as June Allison, Dick Powell and Gary Cooper were among his pupils.

Allais is credited with having sold the French government on his kiing technique and his instruction was used exclusively in the training of French ski troops. He maintains that the method he originated and perfected is imparted to beginners in half the time formerly used in instruction. It was this technique that helped him share top honors with Gretchen Fraser, Portland, Oregon, skier in the last Olympics.

Among his other big-time activities Allais supervised the work of laying out France's most important resort at Megeve.

Squaw Valley, which is just off Highway 89 between Truckee and Tahoe City, boast the largest ski lift in the world, 8200 feet long with a vertical rise of 2000 feet and a capacity of 600 passengers an hour.

A COLD WET DAY
The Weatherman forecasts a cold, wet day today. Rain and winds of gale velocity will be general throughout Northern and Central California. The W. M. advises all to "stay in and hug the heat."

for a SUNNY SPOT of warmth use a good and dependable ELECTRIC HEATER

Sometimes the weatherman seems to guess wrong about the weather. But then he has a hard time satisfying the public.

There is one thing, however, we can all agree on when wintry winds blow and that is to stay in and hug the heat. And you'll make no mistake when that heat comes from a handy, portable electric heater. There you have an appliance that satisfies all the public. It is like turning on the sun when you plug in an electric heater in your home. See your dealer about your electric heater today.

Tahoe Legion Makes Final Plans For Turkey Shoot Sunday

TAHOE CITY— On Monday, November 7, Tahoe Post 718, American Legion, met to work out the final details of their third annual Turkey Shoot to be held Sunday, November 13, on the Tahoe City Golf Course.

On the rifle range, five firing points will be in operation simultaneously. To prevent confusion on or near the firing line, tickets will be sold at a single gate at the entrance to the firing line. One ticket good for three chances at the target. Number of tickets per contestant is unlimited. While contestants may bring their own favorite rifle and ammunition, they are reminded that telescopic sights and slings are not allowed. For those without a rifle there will be some available, including a 30-30 and an '06. Ammunition for these as well as some other calibres will also be available.

On the pistol range, tickets will be sold for one dollar also, the contestant being authorized ten shots at one target. Again, number of tickets per contestant is unlimited. The high scorer in each group (planned group is 15 targets with number of contestants immaterial) wins a bird. Private parties may buy a block of 15 targets and fire competitively within their own group for a turkey if they wish. Pistols may be of any calibre.

Ropes will separate the firing line from the spectators. A concession run by the post will provide weiners with the trimmings, coffee and Cokes.

Commander Al Randolph reminds all members of the post there will be plenty of work on Saturday and Sunday. The shoot starts at 10 a.m. Sunday.

Tahoe Area Ranks High As Anglers' Mecca, Fish and Game Reports

The Tahoe game management district of the state division of fish and game ranked third in the state's eight districts during the 1949 season in the number of trout caught, according to a report made public this week by the division.

From a random sampling of all licensed anglers, the bureau of fish conservation has come up with information which will be of value in expending angling license revenue.

Analysis o returned post cards show most of the state's million fishermen reside in metropolitan areas. Expenditure of a proportionate amount of the bureau's budget in those areas is unwise, if not impossible, says the report. Instead, the city fisherman's allotment will be spent where he does his fishing.

During the season, anglers from six residence areas reported catching their trout in the Tahoe fish and game management area. Of an estimated 2,701,933 catch, 1,165,174 were taken by Sacramento area anglers. Southern California 144,607; south central 48,091; San Francisco 808,,733; San Joaquin 518,854; northern California 16,474 fish.

The Tahoe District total was topped by Mt. Whitney with 3,762,772 and San Joaquin with 2,754,689. Other districts include Southern California, Coast, Central, Lassen and Shasta.

Carl Schmidt of Woodland was a visitor at Tahoe City and Homewood this week.

Lake Tahoe Ski Club Surveys Grounds As Improvements Planned

TAHOE CITY— Looking and walking over Olympic Hill Sunday afternoon, veteran members of the Lake Tahoe Ski Club and several tyros made plans for improvements to be begun this week.

Led by G. D. Waters of Tahoe City, club president, the group first checked the outrun-drain and agreed that bulldozing a new water course and planting of a barrell-drain was th best solution to the present problem.

Bulldozing and clearing willows adjacent to the outrun will permit better visibility and reduce hazard. Jim Baker's request that a hump-back in the transition be removed will also see action. Kjell (Rusty) Rustad, Tahoe Park, gave his well qualified advice on how the proposed class A jump could be easily worked in and with Ray Fellows, Baker and Waters checking, measurements were made and take-off changes suggested. In addition to these members, two of last year's star younger jumpers, Lewis Fellows and Jimmie Morhain, non-jumper Bob Gilbert and Myra Lee Pollitt were present.

Weather permitting, Charles and Oliver Henrikson will begin necessary action with bulldozer this week.

SACRAMENTO —(W. N. S.)— California Highway Patrol captains have been alerted for the forthcoming holiday season by State Highway Patrol Commissioner Clifford E. Peterson.

The Highway Patrol boss said the full strength of the patrol will be on duty during the Armistice, Thanksgiving and Christmas-New Year holidays.

Present strength of the patrol is approximately 1100 patrolmen.

He said the 275 motorcycle officers will be on duty in the heavy traffic areas.

Peterson reported an increase in the traffic accident ratio during the past two months and said the patrol will be doing its utmost to keep the accident rate down during the holiday season.

In his statement cautioning motorists to exercise care during their holiday excursions Peterson reminded that this year there will be more driving after dark than during the holidays last year when daylight savings was in effect.

North Tahoe

by T. BURROUGHS

A unified Christmas party is being planned by the North Tahoe community with a tentative date set for it on Saturday, December 24th. On November 3 the first meeting for the project was held in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Mulford Miles with all presidents and persons in authority to act for the clubs present to decide upon the ways and means for development of the one grand party.

Miles, representing the Rotarians, was chosen as general chairman and Peter Svendsen is chairman of the finance committee. They will be ably assisted by Ted Barrett, representing the Carpenters' Union; Mary Abbott, PTA; Alice Sorensen and Ruth Mizner, the Women's Club; G. Rutledge, Community Methodist Church, and Charles Chubb, the Kings Beach School.

All cooperation toward this worthy project will be fully appreciated and we are all putting our shoulders to the wheel to make it a wonderful time and success.

Girl Scout Leader Mrs. Finney Arney announced that a meeting will be held for all girls between the ages of 10 and 17 years who wish to form a troop in the Kings Beach School at 2:15 Saturday, November 12. Seventeen signified their intention at the meeting last Saturday but some could not qualify because they were below the required ten years of age. The hour has been set for 2:15 to allow those wishing to attend to finish their dancing lessons which occur from one until two. Mrs. Arney and Audrey Welch will be present at the formation meeting and those who do not enter at this time may do so after the first of the year.

The Brockway Rotary Club heard Professor Paul H. Jensen speak authoritatively and interestingly on the United Nations at the meeting held Monday at Don and Grace Bowman's Gables. Vice President Bill Bates presided in the place of Tom Lucas. Andy Sorensen was program chairman and Professor Jensen, of the University of Nevada faculty, held his listeners' attention as he has been a member of the United Nations and has attended two conferences. He was accompanied by Mrs. Jensen. Mulford Miles talked on the Christmas party and the money jars were filled by the generous membership.

Each year Al Gerardi celebrates his birthdate by doing a good deed and this year the $20 he contibuted to the children's party held earlier at the recreational center went a long way for the entertainment of the youngsters. We are sure he gained a full measure of enjoyment from his birthday gift.

Practically everyone went to Smith Valley for the pheasant hunting, returning with 100 per cent limits of good will and enjoyment but few limits of birds.

Florence Miles would have, if possible, delayed the current storm as it has interrupted the visit she looks forward to from her brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Wells of Fullerton, who are taking a year's leave from their duties as principal and teacher in the Los Angeles school system. They plan the reunion as soon as sunny skies are seen again.

P. M. Burroughs and Judge C. W. Vernon of Tahoe City are in the bay district on Chamber of Commerce business.

Wee Kirk of the Pines is holding Church School each Sunday at 10 a.m. in Carpenters Hall and is followed by Sunday services at 11 o'clock.

Vera and Melvin Miller have closed their North Shore Market for the winter and are visiting in Los Angeles.

Guests at the P. M. Burroughs home are Mary Machado, Louise Tucker and Muriel Wright, all employed in a state office at San Jose.

The Women's Society of Christian Service held an all-day work meet in the home of Mary Abbott on Tuesday.

The 1950 Ford Deluxe Tudor Sedan combines the modern styling so widely acclaimed by the car-buying public with the comfort and economy demanded of a family automobile. Smart new treatment of the grille and parking lights and a colorful new crest—the first in Ford history—distinguish the front of the new models. Comfort features include new non-sag front seat springs covered with a new foam rubber cushion, additional head room and smoother, quieter V-8 and 6-cylinder engines.

Swanee's Letter

MT. VERNON, ILLINOIS
Nov. 6, 1949

Dear Tahoeites:

Today is Sunday and a bright, beautiful day it is. This is a friendly litte town of 20,000 with streets lined with cozy white cottages for the most part and spreading maple trees, some half bare of foliage while others retain the brilliant red and yellow wealth of vanishing autumn. Mt. Vernon is the county seat of Jefferson County and has a lively business center which surrounds the square housing the court house. Three railroad lines, the L&N, CE&I and Southern Illinois, run through the town and train whistles sound at all hours of the night and day.

I arrived just one week ago today and am just beginning to feel rested. My trip was a bit strenuous and certainly broadened my education. I left Reno around midnight on Friday, October 28, and learned the hard way that when takes along the 150 pounds permitted on one's ticket in cartons it must be in boxes which weigh not more than 50 pounds each. Luckily, I went early to check them in and had plenty of time to repack into two boxes the one which weighed almost 100 pounds. The agent told me that had I waited until the last moment before train time I would have had to pay $13 to send that one box.

Son-in-law Bill Steenis, his mother Mrs. Adeline Steenis and daughter Marie saw me off on the streamliner and I enjoyed the comfort of a warm berth but no sleep at all that night. Got up and dressed for breakfast Saturday morning while crossing the mud flats of Salt Lake and scanned the great Salt Lake while eating. Was told it is 75 miles long, 30 miles wide and 40 feet deep under the trestle over which the train passes. From then on for miles, all the way to Ogden, the train winds over the most desolate, God forsaken waste land imagineable—a complete reverse from the green covered hills and vales of our Truckee-Tahoe area. Saw the first signs of life just before reaching Ogden where snow was falling over the high mountains. Flocks of black birds and sea gulls, cattle, horses and chickens were in evidence every where and trees and green fields whizzed past. We set our watches ahead one hour there and again at 9:45 Saturday night. Snow and rain were falling at Rawlins, Wyoming, but only lightly. After leaving Cheyenne, Wyo., we were told our speed would average 110 to 120 MPH in order to make up approximately one hour lost en route. Looked like they did too as waiters deposited folded napkins in all our saucers when coffee refused to remain in our cups while rounding curves.

It was during lunch hour on Saturday that I realized how small the world really is. A couple came into the dining car and were seated at a table nearby. The lady glanced at me and smiled and her face somehow looked familiar. In a few moments she come ovee to my table and called me by my maiden name, much to my surprise.

It developed we had worked together 30 years ago at Jackson Furniture Company in Oakland where I was head biller before marriage. Time sped quickly from then on until they left the train Sunday morning around 2 to take a private car cross-country into Nebraska where she was born, to visit with relatives. They were Mr. and Mrs. James G. Paps of Oakland, he being president of the Ford company bearing his name and president of the Ford Dealers Advertising Assn. of the Richmond district. They had both attended my wedding and reception and brought me up to date on many old mutual friends. They were flying home from Detroit, after attending a dealer's convention.

Woke up Sunday morning, after a good sleep, at Cedar Rapids, Iowa, and found the country much more to my liking. Neat farms, fenced off tidy homes and big red barns and silos just like the ones on Christmas cards. Arrived only 20 minutes late at Chicago's busy station, my first impression of the city being a realization of tall, dirty buildings and dirty streets. Checked my bag and ate dinner, then spent much of my five hours waiting in touring the big city by taxi. Couldn't shop as it was Sunday but enjoyed the spiel the driver gave me and the interesting spots. Even saw the luggage shop where Playboy Engle, the aged lover, was captured while shopping with his latest so-called wife.

Left Dearborn Station at 5:10 and arrived at Mt. Vernon around 11 p.m. with son-in-law Charles Hall waiting for me with a taxi. It was grand seeing daughter Phil and grandchildren Sammie Lee and Barbara after a separation of four years.

I wind this up as we approach the critical hour. Our new baby is due tomorrow and all is in readiness. Maybe my next letter will bring the glad tidings. Until then I wish you all good luck and hope my stand-in, Bob Gilbert, is treating you right. Until the next time adios all. As ever, Swanee

California Leads U. S. In Registration Of Private Owned Aircraft

SACRAMENTO —(W. N. S.)— Despite the fact that the number of civilian aircraft in California registered with the aeronautics commission is down this year from 1948, this state leads the nation in the use of private aircraft.

The California Aeronautics Commission made this observation, announced that in Nevada County, 21 privately owned aircraft were registered in 1948, and 26 in 1949.

California has approximately 33 per cent more civil aircraft than the second ranking state in the nation, which is Texas, and its total is more than the combined registrations of 17 states of the nation.

The commisson said that in 1948, 10,639 aircraft were registered as compared to 10,452 to date this year.

TATUMS IN JAIL; SON PLEADS GUILT, SAM IS SENTENCED

Jack Tatum, 28, object of an intensive search throughout the west following his sensational escape from the Phoenix, Arizona, jail some time ago and who was captured last week in El Paso, Texas, has pleaded guilty in Phoenix to driving a stolen car across a state line.

Two other Dyer Act charges will be considered by the federal grand jury when it meets. He also faces a jail break charge.

Tatum was alleged to have been involved in the burglary of a number of Lake Tahoe homes and was being held in the Minden jail prior to his first escape and subsequent arrest in Phoenix.

Sam Tatum, head of the much-prosecuted Tatum clan, went on trial in Minden Tuesday for participation in the Tahoe burglaries. He was found guilty after the all-male jury took only half an hour to reach a verdict in the court of Judge Clark Guild. He was sentenced to serve from one to 15 years in the Nevada state prison.

Prosecution witnesses included Dr. J. C. Flowers, whose home was among those burglarized, and Constable Irwin Butner of Lake Tahoe, who investigated the burglaries. Father Tatum pleaded not guilty, contending he had not taken part in the crime but had been given the stolen goods by his sons, Jack and Frank.

Frank, also charged with the Tahoe crime, is serving time in San Quentin prison for violation of his parole.

The brothers were arrested in Reno early last August. They had been living at or near Lake Tahoe during the summer and allegedly had been living in the guest house of a big Tahoe estate and in a trailer at the foot of the Kingsbury grade.

According to officers they made raids on various homes to keep themselves in necessities and luxuries. Later the father was arrested in California in possession of some of the loot and taken to Minden to stand trial.

VOTE ON TUESDAY RAISES PROBLEMS IN AID FOR AGED

SACRAMENTO —(W. N. S.)— An estimated $65 million will be saved the state by the action of voters who Tuesday repealed the McLain pension program.

State tax experts pointed out the election results have practically wiped out any possibility of a deficit in state finances next year and eliminated any need for increased taxation. Part of the savings will result from the dropping of 18,000 pension recipients from the state aid rolls. These are the 63-64 year old persons who became eligible for aged aid benefits under the McLain program adopted last year.

In addition more stringent administration of the aged aid program, eliminating those persons who were granted the maximum payments of $75 per month without regard to other income, will reduce further the state costs.

Another 23,000 probably will lose assistance because of the restoration of the relative responsibility policy and the restrictions against excessive property holdings.

Adoption of Proposition No. 2, which junked the George McLain-Myrtle Williams administration of old age relief in California, has "created a crisis in county financing," the county supervisors association announced. To meet the crisis, officials of the association said they would confer with Governor Earl Warren within a week or ten days to request a special session of the state legislature, probably in January.

Meanwhile, Secretary of State Frank Jordan announced that in all probability the constitutional amendment will be certified during the first week in December, which means it will become effective the first of March, thus leaving four months in this fiscal year during which county budgets will not provide for the full amount of pensions provided in Proposition No. 2.
